

Morning Prayers of Praise

Tony Chan

1st Prayer of Praise

Lord! It is your loving command and blessing that we should praise you aloud, because praising you aloud can deliver me from all sorts of subjectivity and self-consciousness. Lord Jesus, I want to experience your power and be filled with your loving kindness through praising you aloud. I believe, through praising you aloud, I will be filled with joy, confidence and hope and can actively and boldly live in the present. I want to always maintain a gleeful appearance as a response to your great love.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

I will shout to God my strength! I will shout to God my strength! I will shout to God my strength!

Lord, my strength, I love you! Lord, my strength, I love you! Lord, my strength, I love you!

2nd Prayer of Praise

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Praise Jesus, Hallelujah, Praise the Lord! Lord Jesu, I will praise you with a loud voice, because you are holy, and you are being enthroned with my praise. Lord Jesus, I will praise you with a loud voice, and your throne will descend upon me. Lord Jesus, I will praise you with a loud voice, and your holiness and health will be fulfilled in me. Jesus, I love you!

I will praise you with a loud voice, and I will boast of your victory upon me. Victory does not depend on me, but on you. As I fix my eyes on you and praise you, your power will come and fight for me, and overcome all of my foes within and without. Jesus, the Almighty One, my Marshal, I will praise you with a loud voice.

3rd Prayer of Praise

Lord Jesus, you are the spring of my joy. My heart is joyful only because of you, and I am glad because you have sovereignty over my body. I want to be full of hope. I want to accept whatever that you have set for me, because I believe these are the best for me. Thus I will thank and praise you in all circumstances.

Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Praise Jesus, Hallelujah, praise the Lord! Lord Jesus, you are worthy of praise. Lord Jesus, you are always worthy of great praise. You are my Creator and my King, and I will be joyful only because of you. I will be happy every day. Lord Jesus, you are the center of my life, and I will praise you and thank you always!

Lord Jesus, thank you for teaching me that giving thanks in everything is your purpose for me in Jesus Christ. Lord, I believe through giving thanks in everything you will cause me to live healthily, happily and confidently, and lead me to holistic personal growth.

Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! Lord Jesus, I will thank and praise in prosperity and adversity! Lord Jesus, I will submit myself entirely to you. I will totally accept all kinds of circumstances, as you can be magnified in them. I believe that you work in all things for the good of those who love you. I will praise you with a loud voice!
